IN THE 15th JUDICIAL CIRCUIT COURT IN AND FOR PALM BEACH COUNTY, FLORIDA

RALPH J. MCCORMACK, an individual, and MARGUERITE A. MCCORMACK, an individual,

Case No.:
Division.:

Appellants,

vs.

VILLAGE OF ROYAL PALM BEACH, FLORIDA,

Appellee.

APPEAL

NOW COMES Appellant, RALPH J. MCCORMACK, an individual, and MARGUERITE A. MCCORMACK, an individual, (collectively the "MCCORMACKS" or "Appellants") by and through its undersigned attorney, and pursuant to Section §162.11 of the Florida Statutes and Chapter 2 of Ordinances of the Village of Royal Palm Beach, Florida, , appeals each and every one of the twenty-nine (29) Orders Denying Fine Mitigation as against the Appellants' homestead property, by the Code Enforcement Special Magistrate for the Village of Royal Palm Beach, Florida ("Royal Palm Beach" or "Appellee") all done and ordered on July 19, 2019 ("29 Orders Denying Fine Mitigation"), and in support hereof, states:

BACKGROUND and PROCEDURAL HISTORY

1. On December 12, 1991, Appellants RALPH J. MCCORMACK and MARGUERITE A. MCCORMACK, husband and wife, purchased 106 Hemingway Court, Royal Palm Beach, FL 33411 ("Subject Property") by Warranty Deed.

2. The MCCORMACKS, have owned or have been the beneficiary of the Subject Property since December 12, 1991 through the present, and the property has been transferred to both or one of the MCCORMACKS during this time for estate purposes.

3. RALPH J. MCCORMACK is a decorated Vietnam Veteran who is retired and among other health related infirmities, suffers from mental illness.

4. MARGUERITE A. MCCORMACK is retired and among other health related infirmities, suffers from mental illness.

5. Since 2010, the MCCORMACKS have been fined by Royal Palm Beach's Code Enforcement board in twenty-nine (29) different cases, a majority of which were due to the grass being too high.

6. As of the date of the July 17, 2019 Fine Mitigation Hearing before Code Enforcement Special Magistrate Doug MacGibbon ("MACGIBBON"), these twenty-nine (29) fines totaled Four Hundred Forty Three Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixty-Two Dollars and 16/100 Cents ($443,962.16).

7. At the July 17, 2019 Fine Mitigation Hearing ("Fine Mitigation Hearing"), the Appellants appeared before Code Enforcement Special Magistrate MACGIBBON seeking a Fine Mitigation on each of the twenty-nine (29) fines levied against the MCCORMACKS for which Special Magistrate MACGIBBON denied reducing any of each of the twenty-nine orders by even $1. A copy of the 29 Orders Denying Fine Mitigation are attached hereto and incorporated herein as Exhibit "A".

COUNT I APPEAL (APPELLATE REVIEW)

The MCCORMACKS appeal the Appellees 29 Orders Denying Fine Mitigation and states the following:

8. The MCCORMACKS realleges and reaffirms the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 7, as set forth above.

9. At the July 17, 2019 Fine Mitigation Hearing, the MCCORMACKS made a personal appearance, among other factual witnesses, and were represented by the undersigned counsel.

10. At this hearing, the Royal Palm Beach Attorney Mitty Barnard, Esq., argued that the Village had served as the property manager for the MCCORMACKS to cut their grass which is contrary to the fines assessed for “not cutting the grass” and these fines for “not cutting the grass” while the Royal Palm Beach “acted” as property manager were as high as $186,800.00 per single violation. See Exhibit A. at Case No. 13-0790 Order Denying Fine Mitigation.

11. Also, Royal Palm Beach Attorney Mitty Barnard, Esq., proposed that no portion of the Four Hundred Forty Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixty-Two Dollars and 19/100 Cents ($443,962.16) should be reduced and Special Magistrate MACGIBBON accepted said recommendation without question to Royal Palm Beach’s Attorney, even though no evidence was introduced at the July 17, 2019 Fine Mitigation Hearing by the Attorney for Royal Palm Beach, as to the amount Royal Palm Beach spent on maintaining the cutting of the grass, or any complaints by neighbors allegedly negatively affected by the MCCORMACKS for which Special Magistrate MACGIBBON assumed in his verbal order as a fact.

12. The basis for Special Magistrate MACGIBBON’S decision, in part, not to mitigate any of the fines, was founded on the basis that the MCCORMACKS failure to do so, was “self-inflicted” despite that testimony of RALPH MCCORMACK who testified that he was absent for many of those years due to hospitalization and not being a well person.

13. In addition, Special Magistrate MACGIBBON'S based his decision in part, not to reduce any of the 29 Orders, referencing a matter that was not on the agenda, nor cited, in which Special Magistrate MACGIBBON had not held the MCCORMACKS in violation because they allegedly had a Christmas decoration on their roof.

14. It is the allegation of the Appellants that the Village of Royal Palm Beach did not seek a reduction in any of the 29 Orders Denying Fine Mitigation because they want to take the Subject Property from the Appellants, through a foreclosure action, which is an improper basis for refusing to seek any reduction in fines resulting from high grass as doing so is inconsistent with the legislative intent of the governing Code of Ordinances of the Village of Royal Palm Beach.

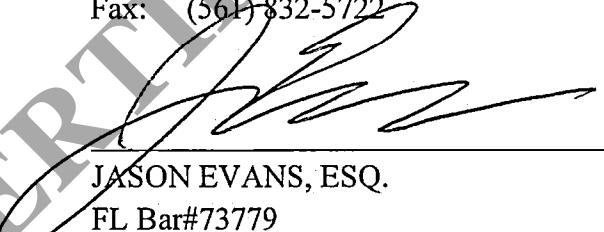

[INTENTIONALLY DELETED.]

15. The decision of the Special Magistrate violated procedural due process, did not follow and observe the essential requirements of law, and the ruling was not supported by competent, substantial evidence.

WHEREFORE, Appellants request an appellate review of the record created before the enforcement board, reversal of the decision of the Special Magistrate, and for such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.
